Your Wired-In Life Challenge

If your score for a core value in the Core Values Index™ is . . .

36

. . . You almost always operate in alignment with these core values.

26

25

. . . You ordinarily and regularly operate in line with these core values, and you find it energizing.

19

18

. . . You occasionally and with effort operate in line with these core values.

12

11

. . . You almost never operate in line with these core values and you find it de-motivating.

Write your four core values scores where each score fits on this ladder—i.e. Power 33 then subtract your second highest score from your highest score to find the difference between each score.

Now you can see how you operate. You can see why it is easy or hard for you to shift from a power strategy to a love strategy, or why you can hardly imagine operating in the wisdom strategy at all.
